

CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

We believe in maintaining an inclusive and welcoming environment and workplace that motivates and facilitates personal growth and development for staff and educators. The values that underpin our work ethic include equality, respect, integrity, and responsibility. Our Centre is committed to adhere to the ECA Code of Ethics (2016) which is based on the principles of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (1991) and provides a framework for the reflection about the ethical responsibilities of early childhood professionals. Our Centre is committed to creating and maintaining an environment that promotes the safety of all children and embeds the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations. All staff and volunteers are responsible for promoting a culture of safety and wellbeing to minimise the risk of child abuse or harm to children whilst promoting children's sense of security and belonging.

PURPOSE

We aim to establish a common understanding of workplace standards and ethics expected of all employees of the Centre. We aim to ensure positive working relationships are formed between all educators and management, promoting dignity and respect by avoiding behaviour which is or may be perceived as harassing, bullying or intimidating. Educators and management will at all times conduct themselves in an ethical manner and strive to ensure that all interactions are positive and respectful and are in accordance with the Centre’s philosophy.

Our Centre takes every reasonable effort to accommodate the diversity of all children in implementing the Child Safe Standards. We are committed to the safety and wellbeing of children and young people. We recognise the importance of and responsibility for, ensuring our Centre provides a safe and supportive environment which respects and fosters the rights and wellbeing of children in our care. We are dedicated in promoting cultural safety for Aboriginal children, cultural safety for children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds and to providing a safe environment for children with a disability.

SCOPE

This policy applies to staff, management and visitors of the Centre.

IMPLEMENTATION

The Approved Provider, Nominated Supervisor, educators and staff, volunteers, and students will adhere to the Early Childhood Australian Code of Ethics, Education and Care Centres National Regulations and National Quality Standard, and Centre policies and procedures at all times, promoting positive interactions both within the Centre and the local community.

Respect for People and the Centre

Expectations of Leaders and Management

In addition to the above responsibilities, leaders and management are expected to:

- promote a collaborative and interconnected workplace by developing a positive working environment where all employees can contribute to the ongoing continuous improvement of the Centre
- promote leadership by working with employees and providing opportunities for professional development and growth
- provide flexible opportunities to ensure all employees can participate in staff meetings and professional development
- provide ongoing support and feedback to employees
- keep employees informed about essential information and any relevant changes and make all documents readily accessible to them
- ensure copies of the ECA Code of Ethics is available to staff and families

- model professional behaviour at all times whilst at the Centre
- implement supportive and effective communication systems, consulting employees in appropriate decision making
- take appropriate action if a breach of the code of conduct occurs
- share skills and knowledge with employees
- give encouragement and constructive feedback to employees, respecting the value of different professional approaches

Reporting a breach of the Code of Conduct

- all employees are required by law to undergo a Working with Children Check (WWCC) which is verified by the employer to ensure it is valid and current
- if employees become aware of a serious crime committed by another employee, they are required to report it to management as per the Reportable Conduct Scheme
- as mandatory reporters, all employees must report possible risk of harm to children or young persons to management
- employees will report any concerns they may have about inappropriate actions of any other employee that involves children or young people to management as per the Reportable Conduct Scheme
- management will report any allegations or child related misconduct as per their legislative requirements (this may include reporting the matter to the Police, Department of Communities and Justice and the Office of the Children’s Guardian in QLD)

Managing conflict in the workplace

MANAGEMENT WILL:

- remain objective and impartial when managing conflict in the workplace
- be responsive and address a possible breach of the code of conduct by any employee as soon as they are aware of the breach
- investigate all allegations which may result in remedial action, or disciplinary action ranging from a caution to dismissal
- consider all relevant facts and make decisions or take actions fairly, ethically, consistently, and with transparency. If they are uncertain about the appropriateness of a decision or action they will consider:

- whether the decision or conduct is lawful
- whether the decision or conduct is consistent with Centre policies and objectives
- whether there will be an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest involving obligations that could influence the business relationship or conflict with business duties.

Adhering to Centre confidentiality

- Unless authorised to do so by legislation, employees must not disclose or use any confidential information without appropriate approval
- All employees are to ensure that confidential information is not accessed by unauthorised people
- Employees will adhere to the Centre's Privacy and Confidentiality Policy.

Babysitting

- We do not provide babysitting Centres outside normal operating hours
- Should employees undertake private babysitting arrangements with families, our Centre takes no responsibility for any private arrangements between staff members and the family. However, we do expect staff to inform the Centre if they are babysitting or caring for a child that attends the Centre.
- Should employees undertake private babysitting arrangements we require employees and families to sign a copy of the Code of Conduct and complete a 'Out of Hours Babysitting Agreement Waiver' which will we keep in the child and staff member's file (see Out of Hours Babysitting Policy)
- All staff are bound by contract to the Centre's Privacy and Confidentiality Policy, where they are unable to discuss any issues regarding the Centre, other staff members, parents/families, or other children.

Record keeping

- Employees and Management will maintain full, accurate, and honest records as required by the Education and Care Centres National regulations
- Managers have a responsibility to ensure that employees comply with their record keeping obligation outlined in the Record Keeping and Retention Policy
- Employees must not destroy records without permission from management
- Records must be retained and stored securely as per our Record Keeping and Retention Policy

Duty of care

First Five Early Learning Pty Ltd

Source: Childcare Centre Desktop ©2023 – Code of Conduct Policy

- Management and employees have a responsibility to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and others at the workplace to enable compliance with the work health and safety legislation outlined in the Work Health and Safety Policy
- Duty of Care relates to both physical and psychological wellbeing of individuals
- Management and employees must provide adequate supervision of children at all times and ensure the health, safety and welfare of children and young people in their care. This includes taking all reasonable action to protect children and young people from risk of harm that can be reasonably predicted.

Appropriate use of electronic communication and social networking sites

Social media

- As a Child Safe Organisation, our Centre has the responsibility to ensure children and educators are protected from harm when they engage in with digital technology including social media
- Strict guidelines for the use of social media are outlined in our Social Media Policy
- The Centre offers its current enrolled families and staff members a Facebook page as a communication tool. The administrator of the account is the Centre's Nominated Supervisor
- The Administrator controls the content on the page and ensures that the postings are relevant and respectful of the Centre, the children, the staff, families, and greater community.
- Staff members who have a personal Facebook account are not permitted to post any negative comments relating to the Centre, children, colleagues, or families.
- Staff members are to use their own personal discretion when adding a family of the Centre as a 'friend' on Facebook. The Centre does not recommend staff to add families of the Centre as they will be seen still as a representative of the Centre and held to the Centre's Code of Conduct on all posts on their private 'wall' if families have access.
- Families are asked in our Social Media Policy to respect that staff may have a personal policy on adding families due to their professional philosophy and that the Centre does not recommend staff to have families as friends on their private account.
- Staff members are not permitted to request the 'friendship' of families from the Centre.

Personal phone calls/mobile phones/smart watches

We are mindful that educators have a duty of care to ensure children are protected from potential risk of harm. It is imperative that all employees of the Centre provide children with their full attention, ensuring supervision is maintained and remains on the children at all times.

- employees are not authorised to use the Centre’s phones for personal reasons unless in the case of an emergency or with permission from management
- no personal mobile phones are to be used, checked or brought on the floor during working hours
- mobile phones are to be kept inside employee’s bags which will be placed in a designated, secure location for safe keeping
- employees are not permitted to use smartwatches to access emails and social media during working hours. Smart watches are only to be used for viewing the time.
- if it becomes apparent that educators are using their Smart watches to check and respond to messages during shifts, they will be asked to either leave them at home or place in a designated locker / secure location until the end of their shift.
- personal mobile phones and Smart watches may be used during shift breaks when employees are free from work and supervision duties. They are not to be used in general sight of children, unless a situation arises where there is an emergency.
- personal mobile phones are not to be used to take photos of children as this is a breach of children’s privacy. (Centre mobile phones or iPads may be used if it’s for the purposes of ‘observations’ etc.)
- children are at no time to be given access to staff mobile phones
- no personal mail or deliveries should be directed to the Centre unless prior approval has been granted by the Nominated Supervisor/management
- educators and staff are not to contact families or children of the Centre for personal reasons
- if, for personal reasons a staff member needs to remain contactable from someone outside the Centre they should ensure that the situation is explained to management and that the Centre’s primary contact details are passed on to the persons/family outside the Centre.

Centre email

- Email is to be used only for company usage, not for private communications
- Passwords and access privileges are strictly confidential and to be used only by the educator issued with that access, or persons delegated to know and use that access in the normal course of operation
- It is the responsibility of the authorised user to take fair and reasonable steps to ensure the passwords and other forms of access are held safe

- Employees are to be aware that their Centre email account may be accessed by Management at any time.

Use of alcohol, drugs and tobacco

- Smoking is NOT permitted in or on surrounding areas of the Centre
- It is expected that the odour of cigarette smoke will not be detected on an employee's clothing. If an employee is found smoking on the premises, that employee may be terminated. Our Centre supports the Smoke Free Environment Act 2000. The company and its employees will follow all conditions outlined in this act.
- Our Centre is bound by the Education and Care Centres National Regulations. Alcohol, drugs, or other substance abuse by employees can have serious adverse effects on their own health and the safety of others. As such, all employees must not:
 - consume alcohol nor be under the influence of alcohol while working
 - use or possess illegal drugs at any workplace
 - drive a vehicle, having consumed alcohol or suffering from the effects of illegal substances, or
 - bring alcohol or any illegal drugs onto the premises.
- If a co-worker suspects a colleague to be affected by drugs or alcohol, they must inform the Nominated Supervisor immediately. No employee will be allowed to work under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Employees undergoing prescribed medical treatment with a controlled substance that may affect the safe performance of their duties are required to report this to the Nominated Supervisor.
- All issues pertaining to these matters shall be kept strictly confidential. A breach of this policy may initiate appropriate action including the termination of employment.

Dress code

- All employees must adhere to our uniform/dress code supplied during induction including the display of their name badge whilst on shift.
- Enclosed shoes must be worn at all times (strictly no high heels, thongs, or wedges).
- Clothes must be suitable for free movement, active play, and messy play.
- No offensive logos or political statements are to be displayed on clothing.
- Jewellery – one (1) earring per ear (small studs).

- long hair is to be clean and neatly tied back. Ensure hair does not hang in your eyes
- makeup is to be light and natural
- fingernails are to be clean and well groomed
- nail polish (if worn) cannot be chipped
- employees will follow appropriate oral hygiene practices
- an appropriate deodorant/antiperspirant will be worn
- strong perfumes will not be worn as they may cause allergic reactions in children.

Breach of the Code of Conduct

All staff members are made fully aware that the following breaches of the Code of Conduct and role responsibilities may lead to termination of employment:

- reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- refusal to complete mandated professional training
- possessing or selling drugs at the Centre
- immoral, immature, or indecent conduct while at the Centre
- inappropriate use of company equipment and/or resources
- refusing to work as reasonable directed
- possessing a dangerous weapon whilst at the Centre
- bringing disrepute to the Centre
- causing disruption or discontent in the relationship between a family and the Centre
- disclosure of confidential information
- falsifying documentation
- associating with families without disclosing this information with management
- stealing, abusing, defacing, or destroying company property
- interfering with work schedules
- falsification of reports, documents, or wages information
- failure to report for work without notice
- walking off the job
- failure to follow policies and procedures

- vulgarity or disrespectful conduct to families, management or colleagues
- making or publishing false, vicious, or malicious statements about any employee of the Centre, or the Centre itself
- failure to hand in lost property (this is regarded as stealing): Lost property is to be handed to the Nominated Supervisor.

Disciplinary Action

All staff members are made fully aware that continued abuse of the following may result in disciplinary action. These include, but are not limited to the following:

- unauthorised absence
- having personal visitors whilst on shift
- continued personal phone calls
- unauthorised solicitation or distribution of money or materials
- poor work standard
- carelessness
- low level of enthusiasm
- lack of personal cleanliness
- taking excessive breaks
- failure to report health, fire or safety hazards
- repeated tardiness

CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

I have read and understood the Centre's Code of Conduct and agree to abide by the provisions set out in the Code of Conduct at all times. Failure to do so may lead to disciplinary action or dismissal.
